

Name _____

Instructions: Write up to four of the main ideas from the book in the left-hand boxes. In the right-hand boxes, list up to three details that support each main idea.

Book Title:
Topic:
Main Idea	Details 1. 2. 3.
Main Idea	Details 1. 2. 3.
Main Idea	Details 1. 2. 3.
Main Idea	Details 1. 2. 3.

Name _____

Instructions: Read the sentences below and add commas to separate the words or phrases in a list. Then create two sentences that use commas in a series and write them on the lines provided.

Example:

Robots of the future might clean houses, mow lawns, and respond to voice commands.

1. Mechanical bodies information sensors and computer brains are all parts of a robot.
2. Robots can explore icy Antarctica dangerous volcanoes and the distant surface of Mars.
3. Much future space exploration will involve robots because they don't need food water or a return trip home.
4. Scientists program animal robots to roll over on their backs walk on many legs and perform tricks.
5. Humans can walk talk write and do things robots cannot do.
6. Artificial intelligence involves the ability to learn react to new information and make decisions independently.

1. _____

2. _____

