

Name _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Read the complex sentences. Underline all of the subjects and verbs. Circle the connecting word that separates the clauses or phrases. Then use the connecting words listed to create your own complex sentences.

1. That light reflects off the object and forms the image on the film.
2. Certain chemicals turn dark when they are exposed to light.
3. People sent the film back to the company, where it was developed.
4. After you have taken your pictures, the film needs to be developed.

although _____

because _____

when _____

after _____

Name _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Use a dictionary to write the definition of the Latin or Greek root word. Use the root word to brainstorm modern English words.

–graph _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	tri– _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
bio– _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	hydro– _____ _____ _____ _____ _____
tele– _____ _____ _____ _____ _____	micro– _____ _____ _____ _____ _____

Name _____

INSTRUCTIONS: Predict how these words are related to the topic of photography. Write your ideas in column two. After reading the book, revise your predictions in column three.

	Before Reading	After Reading
amateur composition
daguerreotypes
exposure
panning
shutter		